Check the chart to find the right car battery size and cold cranking amps for your Civic del Sol. Your Civic del Sol doesn't have an expiration date, but its battery does. The average car battery lasts three to five years. Check your battery regularly and replace it as needed so it doesn't leave.

Check the battery for corrosion and clean with a battery brush and baking soda solution. Reinstall the battery, using treated felt washers and petroleum jelly to prevent corrosion. Charge the battery, monitoring it to avoid overheating. You can use a hydrometer or voltmeter if possible for checking.
