Are energy storage systems a new technology in Poland?

Energy storage systems are a relatively new technology in the Polish capacity market. They have participated in two auctions so far: making their official debut in 2022 (with 2027 delivery year) and subsequently dominating the competition in the 2023 auction.

Is Poland moving towards battery energy storage systems (BESS)?

As expected, Poland's latest capacity market auctions have highlighted a significant shift towards the battery energy storage systems (BESS) beside the fact that the de-rating factor has been significantly decreased.

Why is energy storage a growing interest in Poland?

There is a rising interest in energy storage in Poland. New regulations, funding programs and rising electricity prices are drivers for a increasing interest in energy storage in Poland. Coming 6th Renexpo Poland, that takes place 19-21 October in Warsaw, provides a good opportunity to follow the new trends and make new business contacts.

What are the driving factors for energy storage in Poland?

Driving factors for energy storage in Poland are besides continuous feeding programs for renewable energy rising electricity prices and the poor condition of the grid. A "Strategy for sustainable development" is currently under consultation.

How much money will Poland receive from the modernization fund?

Funding for the program comes from the Modernization Fund (FM), which underscores the importance of the project for modernizing the energy system. By 2030, Poland could receive about 60 billion zlotys from the FM for energy transition goals. The call for applications runs from June 17, 2024 to June 16, 2025, or until funds are exhausted.

Why is energy storage subsidy important in Poland?

Energy storage subsidy programs are crucial to stabilizing Poland's electricity grid. An increase in the number of storage installations affects the flexibility and reliability of the power system. Balancing energy supply and demand. Reducing the load on the grid during peak hours. Integration of renewable energy sources (RES).
