Should the Guernsey insurance fund increase contribution rates?

The Committee for Employment & Social Security has submitted its annual contributory benefit and contribution rates Policy Letter, which recommends an increase to the contributory benefits funded from the Guernsey Insurance Fund and the Long-term Care Insurance Fund from January.

Will Guernsey increase pension rates?

"The Committee is proposing that the rates of the States pension and all other contributory benefits funded from the Guernsey Insurance Fund are increased by 4.9%, 0.4% more than the rate of core inflation for the year to June 2024.

Do employers pay for accommodation and food in Guernsey?

It is quite common in Guernsey, possibly due to the reasonably high cost of living, for employers to provide accommodation and food to employees. The cost of providing these benefits can be offset against wages. The maximum offset in relation to accommodation only is £78.00 per week, and for food and accommodation is £109.00 per week.

How much do employees get paid in Guernsey?

Employees in Guernsey are entitled to receive a written statement of their pay on or before the day on which they are paid setting out their gross pay, details of any deductions and the reason for those, net pay and the date on which they will be paid. Employees aged 18 and over are entitled to receive a minimum rate of £8.10 per hour.

How much will Guernsey insurance fund & long-term care insurance fund increase?

If the proposals are agreed by the States, contributory benefit rates funded from the Guernsey Insurance Fund will increase by 4.9% and benefits funded from the Long-term Care Insurance Fund will increase by 4.5%. These increases are in line with established guideline policies and would take effect from 6 January 2025.
