Which multinationals will start operations in Hungary by 2025?

Several high-profile multinationals investments will begin operations in Hungary by 2025, with substantial impacts expected on the country's economy and workforce. BYD in Szeged: Chinese electric vehicle giant BYD will open its first European factory in Szeged, capable of producing 300,000 vehicles annually.

How has Hungary utilised investment incentives to attract large-scale projects?

Despite these challenges, Hungary's government has effectively utilised investment incentives to attract large-scale projects. Emerging industries like electromobility and semiconductor production are at the forefront of Hungary's investment priorities.

What are the key projects in 2025?

Key projects include railway and road upgrades, and university campus constructions, writes Világgazdaság. After a freeze imposed during the 2022 energy crisis, public investments are set to rebound. The 2025 budget includes HUF 8,000B (EUR 21.8B) for new developments, with HUF 480B (EUR 1.3B) earmarked for next year.

Why is Hungary expanding its investment portfolio?

While automotive projects dominate, Hungary is also expanding its investment portfolio into other sectors. This diversification aims to increase economic resilience against global disruptions. The government's connectivity strategy seeks to balance regional economic integration while fostering sustainable and crisis-resistant investments.
