

Venezuela energy storage investment

Overview

Why did energy production decrease in Venezuela?

These factors led to a lack of investment and maintenance in the energy sector and a deteriorating infrastructure.¹ As such, Venezuela's total energy production decreased by an annual average rate of 8.2% from 2011 to 2021. Petroleum and other liquids accounted for most of the energy production decrease.²

What is the role of coal in Venezuela's energy mix?

In comparison to oil and natural gas, coal plays a minor role in Venezuela's energy mix, accounting for 0.2% of total energy production and 0.1% of total energy consumption. Venezuela's coal industry has faced challenges such as outdated infrastructure and limited investment, which has affected production.

Why is Venezuela struggling with oil & natural gas development?

Furthermore, budgetary constraints at Venezuela's state oil company PDVSA and a lack of qualified technical personnel and foreign direct investment have all hampered Venezuela's oil and natural gas development. PDVSA is the largest source of revenue for the Venezuelan government.

Will a new project increase Venezuela's production?

According to IPD Latin America, ventures operated by ENI, Repsol, and Maurel & Prom could increase production by an additional 50,000 b/d in the near term. As a result, we estimate that these projects will increase Venezuela's total output to around 900,000 b/d by the end of 2024.⁷

Why does Venezuela have a fuel shortage?

Venezuela has the refining capacity to meet its domestic demand, but the country's refineries are in poor condition. A crippled downstream sector, years of divestments, and poor maintenance have led to a severe shortage of transportation fuels in Venezuela.

Where does Venezuela export crude oil?

Most of the remaining crude oil was destined for India, China, and Europe. Venezuela has seven crude oil export loading points, in practice; however, most of its crude oil exports are routed through the Puerto Jose terminal, which is located offshore of the Jose industrial complex in northeastern Venezuela.
